

The Center for International Migration Studies and the Institute of English and American Studies cordially invites you to their Conference

CENTRAL EUROPEANS OVERSEAS: TRAVEL, MIGRATION, AND WAR (THE WORLD WAR I EXPERIENCE)

PROGRAM

10.30-10.50: Conference Opener (Dr. Tibor Glant, UD, North American Dept.) Presentation of CIMS' Collection of Historical Artifacts and the Document-Preservation Project (István K. Vida, UD, North American Dept.)

10.50-11.00 Coffee Break

11.00-11.30: Prof. Dr. Tibor Frank (ELTE, Budapest): Immigrants or Gastarbeiter? On the Nature of Austro-Hungarian Migrations, 1880-1914

11.30-12.00 Dr. Tibor Glant (UD, North American Dept.): Travel, Migration, and War: The World War I Case Study of Dr. János Szabó

12.00-13.45: Lunch Break

13.40-14.40: Round table on travel, migration, and war, led by Prof. Tim Youngs (Nottingham on Trent University, UK)

15.45-16.00 Coffee break

16.00-16.30: Dr. Štefan Kucik (Ruzomberok University, Slovakia): The Cleveland and Pittsburgh Agreements in the Context of the Czecho-Slovak Liberation Movement in the USA

16.30-17.00 Dr. Gábor Pusztai (UD, Dutch Studies Department): Reise ins Fremde. Das Tagebuch von István Radnai

17:00 – Conference Closing, Discussion over Beer in a nearby restaurant of choice

Time: September 20, 2014

Venue: Studio 111, Main Bldg., University of Debrecen

